

Boyd reported as leaving HDI Global Specialty after only six months

By admin On April 25, 2022 In Insurance Marine News, Keep, People

Senior underwriter Michelle Boyd is reported by Insurance Insider to have left HDI Global Specialty, only a few months after joining from Axa XL.

The Germany-based carrier announced its expansion into the London marine hull and machinery market in November 2021 (IMN November 17th, 2021).

Boyd has over 20 years' insurance market experience, covering both broking and underwriting roles. She had joined the specialty lines insurer from AXA XL, where she was senior marine and hull underwriter.